Mr. Starrett,

Mr. Magaro,

Mr. Clements

Membership:

Membership is offered to any student between grades 8 and 12.

Meeting Times:

Vary based on the ensemble that you participate in

PURPOSE:

The West Shore Marching Band is recognized as one of the most unique marching bands on the East Coast. The band was established in 2015 when the Cedar Cliff & Red Land Marching Bands were merged. True to its predecessors, the WSMB is highly competitive, and successful, in local and national competitive circuits. However, its main focus is to provide a culture of hard work, commitment, excellence, and pride, along with a sense of family, for West Shore students, parents, and staff. The band is proud to be, not only an ambassador for both high schools, but also for our entire school district, and the greater community.

Meeting Schedule:

Fall rehearsals are typically on Monday, (Tuesday-Color Guard), Thursday, and Saturday, along with attendance at all home football games on Friday nights. Summer rehearsals are also required. Summer dates are always TBD, per each season.
